

Speaking Checklist

- Find speaking partners who want to practice English for the TOEFL by joining a discussion group online.
- Form a study group with students in your TOEFL class.
- Visit the www.mylanguageexchange.com website and find an English-speaking partner who wants to learn your language.
- If studying in an English-speaking country, make an effort to meet native speakers of English. Go to a gym or take an interest course.
- Have someone evaluate your speaking. Find out if you have any pronunciation or grammatical problems. If necessary, get a good book or computer program to study.
